MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Team Lead In my role as a team leader at Suman IT Institute, I blend effective leadership by balancing the imposition of solutions with a commitment to fostering a collaborative environment. While I provide guidance when needed, I actively encourage team members to engage in brainstorming sessions and develop their suggestions. This approach not only harnesses the collective creativity of the team but also empowers individuals to take ownership of their ideas. By promoting an open and inclusive atmosphere aim to cultivate innovation and ensure that diverse perspectives contribute to our decision-making processes. This leadership style not only enhances the quality of solutions but also instills a sense of ownership and commitment among team members.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Reading, Computer Programming My interests in reading good books and computer programming reflect a balance between intellectual curiosity and a passion for staying technically proficient in a rapidly changing world.

COMMUNICATION AND INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

Emotional Intelligence my communication and interpersonal emotional intelligence empower me to create meaningful connections, navigate complex social situations, and contribute positively to team dynamics.
